Jeremiah Baba Pagano, Esq., LLM serves as an Attorney at Jacko Law Group, PC (“JLG”) where he supports the critical needs of our clients. His knowledge and experience enhances our team’s ability to provide counsel that aligns with our clients’ transactional needs, corporate objectives, and long-term success. Throughout his career, Mr. Pagano has focused his practice on tax law, managing matters with the Internal Revenue Service, the United States Tax Court, and the California tax authorities.

As a solutions-led attorney, Mr. Pagano’s counsel assists JLG clients with their tax matters, including analyzing, evaluating, and ensuring compliance processes in review of all tax and financial documents, analyzing tax consequences for mergers and/or acquisitions, drafting contracts and agreements, and more. His experience has built the foundation for his passion to strategically advocate for clients and their businesses, to position them for continued thriving success.

Prior to joining JLG, Mr. Pagano served as an Attorney Advisor for the U.S. Small Business Administration, where coordinated numerous efforts and community works, such as the Shuttered Venue Operators Grant (“SVOG”) emergency relief program. Similarly, Mr. Pagano has served as in-house counsel to a 501(c)(3) public charity. Before that, Mr. Pagano gained valuable experience with numerous firms and organizations, such as University of San Diego Federal Tax Clinic, Eaker Pérez Law, and Higgs, Fletcher, & Mack LLP where his legal acumen, nimble approach to service, and determination further attests to his talent and how strong of an asset he is to the JLG team.

Mr. Pagano received his J.D. from California Western School of Law and is admitted to the State Bar of California and the United States Tax Court. As an accomplished attorney, he also received his LL.M. in taxation from the University of San Diego School of Law.
